

Katherine E. McMahon

Practice Areas

- Family Law

Contact

mcmahon@casneredwards.co m 617.426.5900

Katherine E. McMahon focuses her practice in the area of family law, including divorce, modification, child custody and support, grandparent visitation, guardianship, and contempt. She has an in-depth knowledge of Massachusetts statutes and case law pertaining to domestic relations as well as the Massachusetts court system. Prior to joining Casner & Edwards, she served as a Judicial Law Clerk in the Massachusetts Probate and Family Court where she worked closely with justices in the Norfolk, Plymouth, Bristol and Barnstable divisions. In her role as a Judicial Law Clerk, Katherine was responsible for conducting complex and/or novel legal research and drafting legal memoranda and findings of fact on complicated issues involving domestic relations, probate, and equity.

Admissions

- Massachusetts

Education and Experience

JD, Suffolk University Law School
BA, cum laude, University of Maine

Katherine E. McMahon

Membership and Committees

- Member, Massachusetts Bar Association