Evey M. Diaz is a seasoned family law attorney with years of experience helping clients with domestic relations issues and the full spectrum of family law matters. She brings a wealth of experience and a steadfast commitment to her clients, and they appreciate her precise, client-centric approach to legal representation.

Evey is known for her ability to blend legal expertise with practical, common-sense solutions tailored to meet each client's unique needs. In the courtroom, she is recognized for her unwavering honesty and her unparalleled depth of legal knowledge. This combination forms the bedrock of her meticulously organized and effective legal strategies, ensuring that her clients receive the exceptional representation they deserve.

Evey brings a global perspective to her practice, being born in Greece and fluent in Greek. This cultural background allows her to effectively serve a diverse clientele and navigate complex legal matters with ease. She is not only dedicated to her clients but also to fostering diversity, equity, and inclusion within the firm and the legal community at large. She currently serves on the firm's DEI committee. Evey is deeply engaged in advancing the field of family law as a member of the board for the AFCC (Association of Family and Conciliation Courts), the premier interdisciplinary and international association of professionals dedicated to the resolution of family conflict. AFCC members are recognized as the leading practitioners, researchers, teachers, and policymakers in the family court arena.

Prior to joining Casner & Edwards, Evey was an associate at Partridge Ankner, LLP as well as Gargas & Associates, a prestigious boutique family law firm.

With a track record of success built upon integrity, expertise, and a steadfast dedication to her clients' interests, Evey stands as a trusted advocate and ally in navigating the intricate landscape of family law.
